SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. On 28 June two non-asians in Soviet uniforms were observed in tanks on their way to the Han River. The tanks were approximately as long as a train car; they were armed with one cannon and 2 machine guns.
2. North Korean military authorities in Seoul announced on 28 June that WON Seimun, Seoul Central District representative to the Republic of Korea (ROK) assembly, was to preside over the trials of anti-communist suspects and ROK government officials in Seoul. The trials are to start on 1 July.
3. A large (undetermined) number of North Korean infantry troops were in the east gate area of Seoul on 28 June.
4. Approximately 2,500 refugees were in the Taejon area on 3 July. Morale was high since the passage of American combat troops through Taejon on the way north.
